BOOK SYNOPSIS

There is no excitement for him in Albuquerque but plenty of sand and cactus. He longs for a change of pace and is searching for the opportunity to move to a city that suits his needs. Believing himself to be a Christian, Bob follows God with his heart, but he has a problem he is looking to solve. He has always heard of love but has never found it. He has embarked on a mission in life to find love. Bob is sick of Albuquerque, bored with his job, and tired of being alone. A new city, a different job, and a string of meaningless relationships still leave him searching for more. When he meets Cynthia, however, she draws him into a fast-paced adventure that whisks him out of his monotonous routine. Soon Bobs mundane daily grind is gone, and his life is filled with espionage, trips to foreign countries, and a new girlfriend who seems oddly familiar. Join Bob in A Man Found Love as he finds not only love but a new thirst for life.
